Girl Child Safety (Bharosa Cell)

A Report:

The discipline committee (2020-21) of the college has taken initiative to conduct a program in collaboration with Karad City Police Station. The program was organized on Friday, 13th August, 2021 for girl's students only. The program was proposed by Maharashtra State Government and Maharashtra State Mumbai Police for the safety of girl child with the name as "Bharosa Cell", in this cell the safety of a girl child is made the priority so that any crime or any bad act or any such mental disturbances can be curtailed in the initial stage itself, and for the same the officers work 24 hours. The police officers under this cell are called as 'Police Didi' and 'Police Kaka' so that the complainant feels comfortable and friendly while narrating any mishap.

This Cell is 24 hours actively working and patrolling cars are also provided for the same cause. As per the point raised in the Discipline committee meeting the college has taken this opportunity to organize a lecture of Ms. Haseena Harun Mujawar, Head Constable, Karad City Police Station.

The speaker of the programme delivering her lecture and guiding our students through online mode on MS Teams App. Students actively participating and raising questions to the officers in charge.

Thus the discussion between the officers and the students was successfully organized by our college team members. All the doubts, queries so asked by our students were answered satisfactorily.

The said program was so interesting, that it was continued for two and half hours, actually scheduled for one hour only. There were total 48 students present for the said program. Students have actively participated in the same, many questions were raised by our students and the officers were interacting with them in fruitful manner. The discussion was concluded successfully and toll free numbers and senior officer's numbers were shared by the police to help and rescue the girl child in case of any emergency.

Mr. Satish Mane I/c Principal has taken the responsibility to address the program and welcome the guest of honor, anchoring was done by Sonali Kamble Pre Law II student and vote of thanks was done by the Co-ordinator Priety Ghatge Deshmukh.
