9 Jan. "Women Empowerment" One Day Workshop for women

On this occasion of prerana saptah, we organized one day workshop for women. We invited college and school going girl students as well as we invited house-wife residing in near vicinity of college.

In this workshop we kept four sessions of 40 minutes each. We invited resource persons to deliver talk on different issues. Sou. Sunitatai Kadam was the Chairperson of the workshop.

Adv. Varsh Deshpande a renown social activists working for saving girl child. She described the picture of female feticide taking place around us. She shared her experiences from social field and legal field. She expressed that advocates are more interested in taking case of accused. Because they got much fees for defending the accused. However prosecution side is weak in representing the case. She urged all the students of law to practice more for defending the accused but help the society in inflicting punishment to wrongdoer. Medical practitioners are more involved in female feticide cases.

Dr. Yugantara Kadam interacted with the gathering on health related issues of every woman. She said that a woman should understand to take care of herself first. If she is fit then she can do anything for other members of family.

Mrs. Malantai Mohite discussed about the political independence of women. She is from political field and experienced that men are leading the women. She said that though the reservation is given to women in contesting the election. Still today her husband and relatives takes command over her and compels her in taking decisions not of her choice.

For these programmes we received huge response from the society. Women from different strata of society were present for the programme. Society is the main stakeholder of any institution we are taking good care of this stakeholder.
