Annual Report Academic year 2012-13
--

Academic year 2012-13 commenced in the month of July 2012. Many academic and extra-curricular activities have been planned. Students are from rural background and financial weaknesses are the two major limitations of the college. It poses restriction on our efficiency and decisions. However with available strength and will, we do conduct different socio-legal activities for the benefit of stakeholders of this institution. This year also we have decided to organize some major activities.

Student centric approach

Students are important stakeholder of any college. It is necessary to develop inner and outer personality of student. In this regard the college is always engaged in bringing new opportunities for students. This year we have started an innovative activity viz. Open Discussion Forum, in this activity we created a group of four students and divided them in groups headed by one faculty member. We allocated one topic to them and accordingly students are expected to express their views on the issue. At last platform is made open for the discussion and question & answer session. This whole programme is of about one hour. Many students were actively involved in the process. It helps them to improve their logical thinking, analytical mind, research attitude, stage daring and advocacy skills etc.

Mock Trial and Moot court presentation

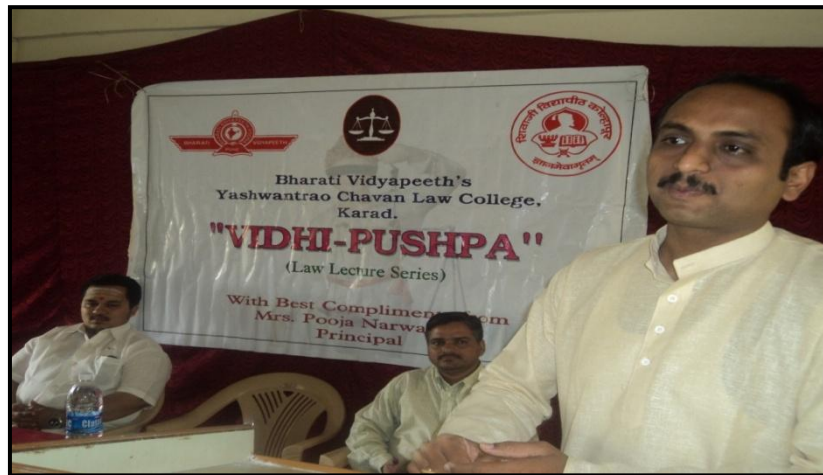

Mock trial and moot court are practical training of students. This helps to develop their advocacy skills. It makes students to plead, to argue and to convince the points effectively. For such activity we invites practicing advocates, who can teach advocacy skills in better manner. To name few, Adv. A. Y. Patil, Adv. C. B. Kadam, are teaching here on contact hour basis. These are leading practitioners at Karad Bar.

Students are actively involved in the programmes.

They interact with the guest and ask queries.

Vidhi Pushpa- Prof. Pratapsinh B. Salunke, 16/08/2012

Asst. Professor of DES Law College, Pune delivering a speech on Late Shri Yashwantrao Chavan and his contribution towards the development of Modern Maharashtra on the occasion of celebrating Birth Centenary of Late Shri Yashwantrao Chavan (1913- 2013)

Para Legal Training Programme & Vidhi Pushpa (Law Lecture Series)- Date- 22 Aug. 2012

Para Legal Training Programme is a programme for judicial officers. This programme is scheduled and sponsored by Legal Services Authority. It is expected that the judicial personeels should take a lead in creating legal awareness among the society. In this regard the Karad judiciary has organized Para Legal Training Programme in our college on 22/08/2012.

In this programme Mr. Upendra Kulkarni, CJJD, Karad delivered a speech on PWDV Act and Adv. Sambhaji Mohite spoke on importance and utility of ADR System in resolving family matters. Adv. A. Y. Patil delivered address to the audience.

10th Sept. 2012 – inauguration of English Communication Courses

The college has started English Communication Courses of 3 & 6 Months of Adult and Continuing Education Dept. of Shivaji University. The Course inaugurated by Mr. Rahul Kulkarni, Area Sales Manager- Daily Loksatta, Pune. He invited the students at his office at pune.

Legal Literacy Programme- 8/9/2012

On the occasion of World Literacy Day, the college unit is divided into groups each group is headed by teaching faculty along with students. That group is expected to explain different laws in simple language to the people so that legal literacy can generate informed citizens.

Our students have played a street act through which provisions of law can be delivered to the common masses with illustrations of daily life. Many activities of the college are benefitting the society and such are appreciated by many social activists and media.

Karmaveer Bhaurao Patil Jayanti- 21 Sept. 2012

Welcome of Chitrarath

Karmaveer Bhaurao Patil was an eminent educationist and founder of Rayat Shikshan Sanstha. He laid foundation stone of education in rural areas of Maharashtra. He is the spirit behind establishment of Bharati Vidyapeeth at Pune.

Therefore Karmaveer is the statute of pride and honour for all of us. On his 125th Birth year, a chariot was prepared which can display the life of karmaveer, so that young generations could come to know about his sacrifices and contribution to the generations together.

Our college also becomes a part of this celebration. We welcome the chariot at Karad and offered our respect to his work. Students and staff actively welcome the chariot.

“Vibrant Minds”, Law Festival, Academic Competitions- 28th Sept. 2012

Since its establishment, this is the first academic activity that has been organized by the college on very large scale. ‘Vibrant minds’ is the name given to the academic competitions covering Moot Court, Legal Essay Writing, PPT Presentation on law topics and Quiz Competition. All these competitions were scheduled on the same day. For this competition we have invited participants from different colleges under the Shivaji University. We limited the entry of students from the view of arrangements and our financial capabilities.

The Event was Inaugurated at the hands of Shri Pirajirao Bhavake, Dist. & Sessions Judge, Karad., Chief Guest of Function was Dr. H. M. Kadam, Regional Director, BV Sangli.

At his inaugural speech Shri. Bhavake sahib applauded the efforts of the college in organizing such kind of activity at this rural area. He found that this college is though settled in rural area still persistently taking efforts in organizing different kinds of activities for the development and welfare of students.

Dr. Prof. Mukund Sarada sir also expressed his well wishes to the college and congratulated the staff for their devotion in organizing such kind of event. In his Key note address he expressed that the increasing competition in all walks of life demands more efficiency and caliber from the person. He said that, 'law field is very vast, students are having ample of opportunities in developing their career however students should develop themselves first'. Further he stated that, 'technology is at the doorstep, students should use it in searching different knowledge, recent decisions of the judiciary, search different provisions etc. this will help them in arguing the case very effectively'.

Prize Distribution and Valedictory Function

Dr. B. M. Hirdekar, CoE, Shivaji Uni. And Dr. H. N. More, Principal, College of Pharmacy of Kolhapur.

All the winners as well as participants have been handed a 'Certificate of Appreciation'. College has decided to hand over trophy as well as Cash prizes to all winners. Team of DES Law College, Pune has won the first prize of Moot Court Competition. Different categories have been made for students to secure awards for Best Mooter, Best Presenter, best team etc.
